Dear Mr. Khan:

Thank you for inviting former CIA Director William J. Casey to address members of the Yale Political Union. As you know, Mr. Casey is unavailable.

You also asked that the group be briefed at our Headquarters Building with the same type of program that we provided last year. Although we tried every way to set up a similar one for this year, we were unable to do so. Try us again next year, and hopefully we will have better luck. I wish you a successful trip to Washington and send best regards to my alma mater.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C.

Dear Director Casey,

It is my privilege to invite you to meet with the members of the Yale Political Union. This spring the Union will be holding its annual Washington Symposium, and we would be greatly honored if you would help us make our trip something special. If you personally cannot meet with us, we would enjoy a briefing like the one the Agency provided last year--this will be an all new group so there is no problem of repetition. Last year's program was both provocative and informative.

On March 9, 10, 11th, a group of twenty to thirty Union members will be in Washington. We would be both excited and grateful if you could meet with us for an half an hour or so of informal discussion anytime during this period. If this is agreeable to you, we can work out an exact time--hopefully a simple matter of choosing one that is most convenient for your busy schedule. We would like to come to your office, or a nearby conference room.

The Yale Political Union is the largest student organization at Yale. Since our founding in 1934 by Dean Acheson, Harvey Bundy, and others, the Union has evolved into a national forum for bipartisan and international exchange. Enclosed please find our schedule from last year's Symposium, showing many of the prominent persons who have met with us. We would be very honored if you would join this fine tradition.

I and the members on the Union look forward to hearing from you, and hope we will have the pleasure of meeting with you in Washington this spring.

Sincerely yours,

Anthony Khan

Mr. Jay Kevin Musoff
Vice-President
The Yale Political Union
1951 Yale Station
New Haven, CT 06520

Dear Mr. Musoff:

Thank you for inviting Director William J. Casey to address The Yale Political Union this fall.

Due to official duties and travel schedules, Mr. Casey is unable to come to New Haven to debate with your group. However, an appropriate briefing on the Agency and Intelligence Community can possibly be arranged for members of the Union at Headquarters Building sometime during the academic year when your group visits Washington. Last spring approximately 37 of your members attended such a briefing. If you are interested in scheduling a visit, please contact a member of my staff, [redacted] who will help arrange a date. Please keep in mind that foreign nationals are not permitted on the compound.

We wish the Union a successful year.

Sincerely,

Mr. William J. Casey
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

It is my great privilege to invite you to deliver a keynote address at a debate of the Yale Political Union this fall. The Union is the largest student organization at Yale, and since its founding in 1934, by Dean Acheson and Harvey Bundy among others, it has become a national forum for nonpartisan political discussion. Past speakers at the Union include Ronald Reagan, Jimmy Carter, Casper Weinberger, Gary Hart, and Ed Koch. We would be honored if you would help us carry on this fine tradition in the upcoming fall term.

You are welcome, of course, to choose any subject on which you would like to speak. Perhaps you might wish to deliver a talk on the role of intelligence in international relations. If it is possible for you to join us, we would be glad to discuss the details of topic and format - indeed, if you would prefer simply to address the body, rather than keynote a debate, this can be arranged. We would like to schedule this event sometime between the third week of September and the last week of November, 1986.

As is our custom, we would be happy to reimburse your travel expenses. Should you wish to spend the night in New Haven, we would be delighted to serve as your hosts. I look forward to hearing from you and hope we will have the pleasure of welcoming you to the Union this fall.

Sincerely,
